

See your colleagues over cocktails, smell and taste a scrumptious dinner, touch our latest lighting solutions, and hear a captivating keynote presentation. Enjoy all five senses during Edison Price Lighting's annual dinner, hosted just across from Philadelphia's Independence Hall.

RSVP to info@epl.com
Please note that seating is limited

design for the senses

You are invited to our annual dinner

Tuesday, May 21, 2019

6:30 cocktails

7:30 dinner

Down Town Club (floor 11)

Entrance through the Public Ledger Building,

101 S 6th St, Philadelphia, PA 19106

Complimentary valet parking

ELLEN LUPTON is a writer, curator, educator, and designer. She is founding director of the Graphic Design MFA Program at the Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA). Lupton is also the Senior Curator of Contemporary Design at Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum. She has published numerous books on design, most recently, "The Senses: Design Beyond Vision." Lupton also curated an exhibit of the same title at Cooper Hewitt.

Vision is the foundation for lighting design, but what about the four other senses? Smell, hearing, taste, and touch create a more enriching, engaging design. Join us for an active sensory exploration and learn how all five senses inspire design.

